Title: Chairman of the Board of Directors

ZOOZ Strategy Announces Review and Evaluation of Strategic Alternatives to Complement Bitcoin Strategy

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 10, 2026 - ZOOZ Strategy Ltd. (Nasdaq and TASE: ZOOZ) ("ZOOZ" or the "Company") today announced that its Board of Directors has authorized management to explore a range of strategic alternatives that could potentially complement the Company's existing bitcoin treasury strategy and enhance long-term shareholder value.

Since adopting its bitcoin treasury strategy, the Company has focused on building and managing its bitcoin holdings while maintaining a disciplined approach to capital allocation. As part of its ongoing commitment to maximizing shareholder returns, the Company's Board of Directors believes it is appropriate to review and evaluate additional opportunities that may potentially leverage the Company's current capital structure, management expertise, and strategic relationships.

Importantly, the Company's management remains highly confident in bitcoin and continues to believe that bitcoin represents an attractive long-term store of value with the potential to generate significant returns for shareholders over time. The review and evaluation of strategic alternatives is intended to potentially supplement and enhance the Company's value-creation initiatives and should not be interpreted as a reduction in the Company's commitment to its bitcoin holdings.

The review and evaluation of strategic alternatives may include, among other things, potential business combinations, acquisitions, strategic investments, operating businesses, partnerships, joint ventures, capital markets initiatives, and other corporate transactions. Any such strategic initiative that may be pursued by the Company would be subject to corporate approvals required by applicable law and, based on the Board or Directors' current guidelines for such review and evaluation, intended to potentially complement, rather than replace, the Company's focus on bitcoin treasury activities.

"We continue to have strong conviction in bitcoin and believe that our bitcoin holdings have the potential to deliver meaningful long-term returns for shareholders," said Jordan Fried, Chief Executive Officer of the Company. "At the same time, we have a responsibility to continuously review and evaluate additional opportunities to create value for our shareholders. We believe that our review and evaluation of strategic alternatives could result in identifying complementary initiatives that have the potential of accelerating growth, diversifying value creation, and strengthening the Company's long-term position."

The Company has not established a timetable for the completion of this review and evaluation process and has not made any decisions regarding any specific transaction or strategic alternative. There can be no assurance that the review and evaluation will result in any transaction, strategic initiative, or other outcome.

The Company does not intend to disclose developments regarding the strategic review and evaluation process unless and until the Board of Directors has approved a specific course of action or disclosure is otherwise required by applicable securities laws.
